CASE STUDY

SYNAQ
BE EMPOWERED.

About AllLife

Since 2004, AllLife has been transforming life insurance in South Africa. As they grew, email management became a costly distraction from their core mission.

The Challenge

Their on-premise email system needed a replacement that was scalable, compliant, and affordable.

The Solution

SYNAQ's CloudMail, offered AllLife the perfect solution, allowing them to redirect resources back to their core business.

The Outcome

AllLife now operates with an 80% reduction in email infrastructure costs, with a feature-rich business email suite protected by SYNAQ's advanced email security solution, SecureMail. SYNAQ's CloudMail has empowered them to focus on what matters most—their clients.
